Petersburg, Va., January 20.
Hampden-Sidney College last night entertained at a banquet in the lecture-room of Tabb Street Church its Petersburg alumni and the officers of the Presbyterian churches of the city, and the meeting was well attended. The object was to interest the alumni and the Presbyterian members in Southside Virginia in the cause of Christian education and the denominational work done by Hampden-Sidney, and to further the interest in the purpose to raise an endowment fund of $100,000 for the college. Addresses were delivered by the Rev. Mr. Bridgeman and by Dr. R. Tucker Graham, president of Hampden-Sidney, who gave an interesting sketch of the work of the college in molding and developing the nation, its influence in church and State and education. It is the second in age among Southern institutions of learning, tenth in age among the college.

Stewart Explains His Arrest.

In the Police Court on Thursday F. A. Stewart, a special salesman, was fined $10 for "being disorderly and cursing while aboard a Clay Street car and refusing to pay his fare;" Mr. Stewart said yesterday that he bearded a car at Seventh and Main and presented a transfer with no coupon attached, when one should have been attached. Because of the conductor's failure to give him the proper transfer, Mr. Stewart at first refused to pay, but did so later. After paying there was a dispute, and he was arrested by four street car employes and one policeman.
